

BUDGET HUT BEAUTY EDIT

THE GLASS SKIN LOOKBOOK

A step-by-step beauty guide for a fresh, luminous, second-skin glow in tropical weather.

YOUR GLOW FORMULA

Hydrate • Sheer • Highlight • Refresh

What Makes Skin Look Like Glass?

The effect comes from thin, radiant layers - not heavy coverage.

01

BOUNCE

Layer lightweight hydration while skin is slightly damp.

02

TRANSLUCENCE

Use a sheer base so natural skin still shows through.

03

REFLECTION

Place glow only where light naturally hits the face.

04

BALANCE

Set the T-zone lightly and keep cheekbones fresh.

THE GOLDEN RULE

Glow should look intentional, not greasy.

Keep the centre of the face controlled and the high points luminous.

The Hydration Layering Routine

Build a plump canvas before makeup touches the skin.

1. Cleanse

Use a gentle, hydrating face wash.

2. Tone

Press in a lightweight hydrating toner.

3. Serum

Apply hyaluronic acid on slightly damp skin.

4. Moisturize

Seal with a light gel-cream moisturizer.

5. Protect

Finish with sunscreen for daytime wear.

TROPICAL TIP

Choose several thin layers instead of one heavy cream.

Let each layer settle for 30-60 seconds to reduce pilling under makeup.

Your Glass Skin Face Map

Place texture and shine strategically for a polished finish.

BASE NOTE

Use a damp sponge and blend from the centre outward for the thinnest finish.

The 10-Minute Glow Recipe

A quick sequence for an everyday polished glass-skin look.

01

PRIME

Press an illuminating primer into hydrated skin.

05

REFLECT

Add liquid highlight to high points.

02

PERFECT

Blend BB cream or a sheer dewy base.

06

SET

Powder only the forehead, nose sides and chin.

03

CORRECT

Spot-conceal only where needed.

07

FINISH

Add lip oil and a hydrating face mist.

04

FLUSH

Tap cream blush onto the apples of cheeks.

TEXTURE CHECK

Cream + liquid products keep light moving across the skin.

Avoid layering powder blush or matte foundation over the luminous base.

One Glow, Two Moods

Use the same luminous base and change the finishing details.

DAY GLOW

Fresh • Soft • Effortless

- Peach cream blush
- Glossy nude lip oil
- Soft brushed brows
- Minimal gold jewellery

NIGHT GLOW

Reflective • Defined • Chic

- Rose-toned cream blush
- High-shine berry gloss
- Soft brown liner
- Minimal silver jewellery

STYLE NOTE: Keep accessories delicate so the skin remains the hero.
